

ASTRO REPORT OF PROFESSOR ALLOTEY

Professor Francis Kofi Allotey's Astrology report, born on 9th August 1932 with Ascendant in Scorpio (2 degrees), this suggests a personality that is intense, passionate, and driven by deep emotions and ambitions. The Rulers of Scorpio ascendant are (Mars and Pluto). Mars, as one of the rulers, is positioned in the 9th house along with Venus. This placement indicates a focus on education, journey to foreign lands, and perhaps involvement in ambitious endeavors related to commerce. The conjunction of Mars to Venus indicates a person who has much desire to accomplish lots for the benefits of society. The square of these two planets Mars and Venus to the plane Chiron, the wounded healer also tell us that this is a man who uses the pain and experiences in his own life to better the life of others, he understand what it means to suffer. Such men are the heroes of men

Moon in Scorpio represents emotions and instincts. In Scorpio, it intensifies emotions, adding to the passionate and ambitious nature of the individual, and the Moon placement in the first house of personality show his ability to deal with the public, coincidentally Moon is in favourable aspect to Pluto and this alignment between these planet gives room for more obsessive desires to accomplish his aims. The Sun, symbolizing life force, ambitions, and willpower, is in favorable aspect with Uranus. Uranus, being unconventional and innovative, is in the 6th house of service and community. This indicates a strong drive towards innovation and service to society.

As it is always said that perfect life is without challenges, The afflictions between luminaries, There are squares between the luminaries (Moon and Sun), which astrologically suggest challenges and tensions. This may have manifested as setbacks, such as the deaths of spouses and other unexpected events that disrupted peace and stability. You can further see these from the seventh house (Partnership and Marriage), the seventh house is highlighted in terms of partnership and marriage, indicating that relationships and marriage have played significant roles in his life and may have been subject to challenges or complexities.

Majority of the planets centered around the Midheaven is an indication of a man poised to make his mark on society by giving off of his best, He gained immense knowledge in science and mathematics and applied this knowledge to solve problems of daily life, he was as well chairman of the American Nuclear scientist association.

In summary, the astrology report paints a picture of a passionate and ambitious individual driven by deep emotions and a desire for achievement. The placements of planets suggest a focus on education, foreign travel, innovation, and community service. However, the challenges indicated by the afflictions between luminaries and the seventh house emphasize the complexities in personal relationships and life events that have influenced his journey.<https://ebasi.org/FAllotey.html>

Prof. Francis Allotey - A Man of Many 'Firsts'